It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life. (John 6:63 NKJV)

Every time you speak your faith; it creates a stronger image inside you. If it is healing you desire, the healing image is created by God's Word and continual affirmation and agreement with it. Eventually that image will be perfected by the Word of God, and you will begin to see yourself well. When the Word is engrafted into you it infuses its life into you.

But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you. (Romans 8:11 NKJV)

Now a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years, and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse. When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment. For she said, "If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well." (Mark 5:25-28 NKJV)

She continued to speak until she SAW HERSELF WELL! This woman hoped to be healed as she pressed through the crowd.

For she kept saying, "If I only touch His garments, I shall be restored to health." (Mark 5:28 AMPC)

That hope was her goal, but she didn't feel Healed, she didn't look Healed. But she began filling hope with faith filled Words, I shall be restored to health. She was filling her hope with a faith image. She set her own point of contact to receive her healing. Her words penetrated her spirit, and she began to see herself well. That "grow worse" image of despair and defeat had to give way to the faith filled Words that came from her own mouth. When she touched His clothes, her touch of faith made a demand on the covenant of God and the anointing that was upon Jesus. What she was saying was her faith talking. When she acted out what she said and touched His garment, that faith that was in her became the substance of her hope, and her words became a living reality. It was her faith that made a demand on the healing anointing that was upon Jesus. Faith gave substance to her hope and healing was manifested in her body.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. (Hebrews 11:1 NKJV)

Her faith gave substance to and brought about the manifestation of healing that was already hers because of the covenant. She had to call for it.

Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.” (Mark 9:23 NKJV)

So the Lord said, “If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.” (Luke 17:6 NKJV)

For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be removed and be cast into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them. (Mark 11:23-24 NKJV)

(As it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations”) in the presence of Him whom he believed—God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did;” (Romans 4:17 NKJV)

It is a Bible principle of believing and calling for things that are not yet manifest. The words of Jesus ring very clear concerning this matter.

And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction.” (Mark 5:34 NKJV)

Giving voice to your faith in God’s Word can also make you whole.
